LETTER OF BISHOP HUGHES TO THE EVENING- POST. The following letter of the Right Reverend Bishop Hughes was written in answer to an anonymous communication addressed to him, which appeared in the Evening Post, signed An Irish Catholic, slandering the motives of the Catholics, and charging the Bishop with being the dupe of one of the political parties of the day: Mr. Editor: Your correspondent who signs himself An Irish Catholic, and dedicates his homily to me by name, must be a very inconsistent man. He must know that thousands of the children of poor Catholic parents are growing up without education, simply because the law as interpreted and administered under the Public School Society, requires a violation of their rights of conscience. The number of such children may be from nine to twelve thousand. Of these the Catholics, by bearing a double taxation, educate four or five thousand; a few hundred have attended the Public Schools; and the rest may be considered as receiving only such education as is afforded in the streets of New York. Now I should think that an Irish Catholic should see in this state of things quite enough to excite my pastoral solicitude for the spiritual and moral condition of the people committed to my charge. In the part which I have taken in the matter, I am only discharging a conscientious duty. But it appears that your correspondent Understands my duty better than I do, and that...
