Ways and Means of Establishing and Operating a Program; October, 1920 By the provisions of the vocational education act, enacted February 23, 1917, the Federal Board for Vocational Education is charged with the duty of disbursing Federal moneys to the States for approved instruction in trade and industrial education of less than college grade, and of promoting in cooperation with the States the establishment of such instruction. The bulletins on organization and administration of trade and industrial education (Nos. 17, 18, 19) were prepared in sufficiently broad terms to indicate that the policies of the Federal Board for Vocational Education applied to instruction for girls and women as well as for men and boys. Accurate information relative to the changes in the employment of women accelerated by the war is not available at present. However, the public is becoming increasingly aware of the extent to which industry is dependent upon women workers....
