Excerpt from Portraits and Sketches of Heads of State Departments and Members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania Daniel Hartman Hastings, Governor of Pennsylvania, was born in Lamar township, Clinton County, Pa., February 26, 1849, and was named for Rev. Daniel Hartman, a minister who for sixty years traveled the circuits of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was the son of William and Sarah Fullerton Hastings. William Hastings was born in Burncrana, county of Derry, Ireland in a little low thatched cabin wherein his father, grandfather and great-grandfather were ushered into this world. Sarah Fullerton was a native of Ayreshire, Scotland. The parents of both emigrated to America when quite young and settled near Salona, Clinton County, Pa. William Hastings was the father of nine children, of whom Daniel was the youngest. The latter acquired his early education in the public schools. Before fifteen years old he heard of a school without a teacher and walked through the snow twenty miles to secure it, and was successful. In 1867 he became principal of...

The publication is easy to read better to understand. It is written in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You won't truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).
