THE REPUBLIC IN PERIL, 1812

WW Norton & Co. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Republic in Peril, 1812, Roger H. Brown, The increasingly bitter partisan struggle over domestic and foreign policy, exacerbated by the effects of the war between Great Britain and France, grew into a corrosive mutual distrust. Federalists doubted that the government could withstand the strains being placed upon it, and Republicans suspected Federalists of conspiring to institute another form of government. Drawing on much new manuscript material, Professor Brown re-examines...
