Unless we can quickly eliminate training as a major safety issue, we can only expect this negative trend in safety analysis to accelerate. Fatigue. Unless a human being knows in advance what time they must report to work, they cannot arrange to be rested and fit for duty. The railroad industry functions on a 24/7 schedule with continuous operations from coast to coast. This is not an excuse for the current position of the railroads holding that their employees do not deserve and are not entitled to advance knowledge of the time they must appear for their next assignment. Every railroad terminal has an information line commonly referred to as a lineup that is intended to advise crews that are subject to call 24/7 regarding their status. Every railroad has problems with the accuracy of these lineups. The employees must have early and reliable information indicating when...
