Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Value of Higher Education: An Address to Young People What I have to say, to-night, is addressed to young men and young women. It is a plea, as strong as I know how to make it, for higher education, for more thorough preparation for the duties of life. I know those well to whom I wish to speak. And to such as these, with the life and duties in the busy world before you, the best advice that I or any one else can give you is this, Go to College. And you may say: These four years are among the best in my life. The good your college does must be great, if I should spend this time and money in securing it. What will your college do for me? It may do many things for you if you are made of the right stuff, or it may do little or nothing, for you cannot fasten a $2,000 education to a fifty-cent boy. The fool, the dude and the shirk come out of college pretty much as they go in. They dive deep in the Pierian springs, as the duck dives in the pond, and they come up as dry as the duck does. The college will not do everything for you. It will not of itself do anything for you. It is simply one of the helps by which you can win your way to a noble manhood or womanhood. Whatever you are, you must make of yourself, but a well-spent college-life is one of the greatest helps to all good things. So if you learn to use it rightly, this the...
